

You are invited to the

Closing Ceremony

of the 2009 Schoodic International Sculpture Symposium

1:00pm on Saturday, September 12
on the SERC Campus on Schoodic Point

Jesse Salisbury will introduce the sculptors, who will talk about their sculptures and experiences in Maine. Elementary students will sing a song from each sculptor's home country.

Refreshments will be served.

The logo consists of two overlapping rectangular boxes. The left box is white with the word "schoodic" in a small sans-serif font above the word "SCULPTURE" in a larger, bold, sans-serif font. The right box is white with the word "international" in a small sans-serif font above the word "SYMPOSIUM" in a larger, bold, sans-serif font. The boxes overlap such that the right box is slightly behind and to the right of the left box.

schoodic international
SCULPTURE SYMPOSIUM

MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to hold biennial, international stone sculpture symposiums in Down East Maine that will engage individuals and communities in public art and result in a large public art collection in Hancock and Washington counties.

You are invited to the

Closing Ceremony

of the 2009 Schoodic International Sculpture Symposium

1:00pm on Saturday, September 12
on the SERC Campus on Schoodic Point

Jesse Salisbury will introduce the sculptors, who will talk about their sculptures and experiences in Maine. Elementary students will sing a song from each sculptor's home country.

Refreshments will be served.

The logo consists of two overlapping rectangular boxes. The left box is white with the word "schoodic" in a small sans-serif font above the word "SCULPTURE" in a larger, bold, sans-serif font. The right box is white with the word "international" in a small sans-serif font above the word "SYMPOSIUM" in a larger, bold, sans-serif font. The boxes overlap such that the right box is slightly behind and to the right of the left box.

schoodic international
SCULPTURE SYMPOSIUM

MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to hold biennial, international stone sculpture symposiums in Down East Maine that will engage individuals and communities in public art and result in a large public art collection in Hancock and Washington counties.